Hi J –

Happy Easter, happy 9th and happy summer! – hope all is good with you – no idea where you are at the mo, but will be in NY at the end of May – lovely to have tea if you are there. We have just got back from a lovely trip to Antigua with the kiddies – [REDACTED], who has just turned 7 now does Sudoku, makes a mean scrambled egg and beats me at draughts! Catharine told me that [REDACTED] was being mean so, as she said “mommy, I just gave his winky a yank!!”

I am also going to Memphis (yeah, I know but it gets worse) so a girlfriend's husband has organised a weekend for her birthday with a bunch of ex-rangers !!! (yeah, I know) it's called some Special Operations Experience or something like that and we are going to shoot stuff, blow stuff up, breach a hostile building and learn evasive driving in a humvee (I know, sounds just like me, right!!) - what am I doing - ?.....seriously.... so any time you want to chip in with some tips, feel free!!

Also, could I possibly stay at 301 for 3 days from 28th to 31st May – I completely understand if it is a problem, but do let me know –

Anyway – miss you – was in Paris a couple of weeks ago and it was divine – oysters, ballet, antiques and the George V hotel – close to perfect as you can get – x
