his response is rather frustrating as he requested loan to be transferred from him individually to Seed and should have had this pre approved by his board in addition our interest should be earmarked as a priority (after not being paid for over 18 months) and not dependent on his a/r collections should i communicate this to adam?

I have no update yet on loan documents because it's not only my decision but do know that the interest payment is imminent -- we've just been in an unusual period of very high uncollected A/R. Appreciate your patience.
