Jeffrey,

I always do my best to assist you. I am very sorry I misunderstood your request and focused on Moscow only.

I am distressed , that after being advised by you, that as belarus did not have an embassy,, that i /she would have to get the visa in moscow.. I have spent , hours, days, maneuvering , having her parents take 20 hours of trains, I decided that I should check on this myself. The answer you gave me was incomplete, at best.. there were five other places to file the visa. all easier, I am doing it somewhere else. but in the future I expect if i ask you a questions which does not happen very often,, i get a full answer.
