Dear Ms Garner, Thank you for your kind assistance. As you are probably already aware, I am requesting a new I-20, so as to enable me to apply for a reinstatement of my former F-1 visa status. I have been told that you need to see evidence of my current status. I am out of town and can fly back for the day if you so require. However, in the interim I have arranged for someone to bring to you on Wednesday the evidence you have requested. The fact is that I have applied for asylum and await a hearing, I am told this will happen in late 2013 at the earliest. I will have delivered to you an official copy of the I-589 (asylum application) receipt from Immigration, as well as a copy of my passport and my former F-1 visa. If you would like to set a time to speak, and would email me same, I will call you at any time of your choosing tomorrow, and if you need any additional documents, they can be provided immediately. I sincerely would like to thank you in advance for your attention. Yours truly Karyna,
