Brice;
The geology maps covering Zorro Ranch include the Stanley and Ojo Hedionda quadrangles. The maps and associated reports can be downloaded at the NM Bureau of Geology website at the following links:

<http://geoinfo.nmt.edu/publications/maps/geologic/ofgm/details.cfm?Volume=39> (Ojo Hedionda quad)

<http://geoinfo.nmt.edu/publications/maps/geologic/ofgm/details.cfm?Volume=143> (Stanley quad)

Ranch headquarters is in the northeast part of the Stanley map. The Galisteo basin north of headquarters is on the Ojo Hedionda map.

Hope your guest finds these maps useful. Please call with any questions you may have.
