He keeps saying "how can I get married to a person who doesn't know me well and there must be an issue with him and might be dangerous"... At the same time suggested a "f... marriage" to pay some student - I said I didn't want to take such a high risk.

And that after his "tragic marriage" he is not ready to do it now... Only when he is ready. I answered that he is a wonderful mature man and that the marriage brings stability. At least the accent has switched from "svetlana not standing on her feet" to "josh not ready"...

I said if I had a green card I would be able to finally get a real job at the IPI which is a first step of "getting on my feet".
