it seems at four you understood" exchange."... you gave something to get something, today you would have asked the tooth fairy for just one more loan lol

Dear Jeffrey,

When I was four years old I made my first deal with the tooth fair.. In exchange for my first prized tooth I was to receive a barbie doll house (with Ken in it.) I gave my tooth and I got my doll house and the man.

If only, finding mates and building a home life was so simple in the real world.

I've thought of you often these last two weeks and it's clear to me that whether or not you're going behave in the fashion I would like.. :) I love you nonetheless, irrespective of our squabbles and I adore you.

You're a remarkable person, whose taught me not only unconditional love in this life time, but given me the ability to think beyond the rule of convention and for that I'm eternally grateful.

Wherever you are, whomever you're bonking,, I send you a big hug.
