Anything is possible. We just need to decide on the images unless you have something specific in mind.

Dear Jeffrey,

Thank you for a most enjoyable time and the house tour!

I'm thinking about your monumental staircase and something of mine that would make sense and look spectacular.

I'm sending you six signature pieces. These are Serrano "classics."

All bodily fluids. Two of these, Semen and Blood and the Piss picture, were used by Metallica as album covers for "Load" and "Reload" because Metallica admired them so much.

I suggest we pick three of the following images and make a unique installation on the three walls filling each wall completely. Not only will they look amazing, you'll have something worthy of a museum.

All the best,

Andres
