Good morning Jeffrey. I truly don't mean to impose. I know you got involved here as a friend. I'm just wondering whether it might make sense for you and I to sit down and review the total picture, maybe even with Ada. We've talked mostly about the largest piece of this puzzle and I know you believe we have numerous issues. Meanwhile, Carlyn and Alan define the issue in a much narrower way and think we are on the way to the necessary fix. I know you are thinking through where we go from here-again-don't mean to be impatient- but I feel like there are also numerous questions on some of the smaller pieces I'd like to run by you. Maybe I could be working to address these in parallel to your effort. Just a thought...I can also just assemble this list and send it your way, maybe that's better- whatever works for you is fine. Thanks!!!
