I have spoken to Ion and shown him all apartments that need to be painted. I told him that the floor people were currently set to do the floors after the paint. He definitely feels that the floor people should work first. He says if dust gets on the walls it will be easy for him to clean it off and prepare the walls for painting. If the floor people come in last they will be working up against the newly painted walls and baseboards and possibly creating dust that will go on the walls. I have seen it for myself in 10 N which had the paint done prior to the floors. [REDACTED] has spoken to the floor people and they would be able to start with 8h on Wednesday. Ion and Michael could then start on Thursday or Friday.
