Dear Jeff,

Although I would be pleased to oblige Eva's daughter, I have vengeance for Trinity. My older son Adam was a student there for eight months in his 13th year and he was summarily dismissed mid-semester without recourse or adequate explanation. This coincided with the beginnings of serious psychological issues. I simply cannot oblige Trinity.

Michael Wood is broad, deep, and interesting. He can talk on a vast expanse of literature, but Nabokov would be fun.
