I'd like to respond in more detail but I'm too exhausted..I do not share your views or recollection of events. Going to sleep.

A more enjoyable dialogue would be possible if you ever responded to positive and neutral emails instead of ignoring all but the negative

I told you after africa that i thought i could no longer use you as you had proven unreliable unpredicatble and unprofessional. You asked for another chance I told you at the first sign of aggravation , as your record was already highly suspect you would never fly again, once again you had a problem , . Then in a last ditch attempt to help you , in spite of yourself I gave you school and a last chance. unfortunaltey again same result. -- It would be nice if at some time a dialogue, which implies a two way exchange , would not simply be about something more that you want.
