Jeffrey,
I would like to utilize Chris our part time Flight Engineer / A&P during the final stages of Boeing maintenance completion to confirm all items are correctly addressed, such as Aux fuel tank quantity operation, fwd entrance stair operation, etc. I like his expertise and he is very helpful to me. He is only charging $500 per day, I'd like to use him two to three days a week as needed, to make sure all items are being accomplished correctly and nothing is overlooked,.
is this approved ?

thank you,
Larry
