I hated it when I read it first.
Did not want to meet him.
On the end I said yes as a favor to banchmark and Peter t.

After meeting and seeing, I changed my mind. It is very cool and useful platform. He can catch the majority of scientists very soon. He just crossed magical 20% number - usually one that crosses that gets all. Regardless of that, very cool system and very sharp guy. You should meet him.
