and manys that went throught the schools that you hate, have been responsible for all of the achievments oaf the 20th century, your argument falls flat when you look at the evidence. people do learn from being told, reading etc. not all, places that have had no schools, and everyone learned by only doing, have not done very well, Korea, learned by doing until 1963, per capit a income of 100 dolloar, then deecided to copy schools of the us.. I also think schools suck, but the evidence does not seem to come out your way
