Good morning! Hope you had a great weekend! [REDACTED] and I are going to a diamond place tomorrow, Cora Fine Jewel Salon at 590 Fifth Ave btwn 47/48th to look at ring options. We met one of the head guys from Cora through a friend of B's and he's going to meet with us tomorrow to go through options. (supposedly they supply some of the larger jewelry stores with their stones) We were wondering if you could come along and help with selections since you have a better eye for these things?

So excited to go to Vera's tomorrow! :-))
