Subject: a draft for your response

Dear Jamie,

I really enjoyed our short conversation. It was intriguing. Leadership in different domains of life has more in common than the eye meets. I think it could be both interesting and mutually beneficial if we were able to set aside an hour or so when I am next in NY.

If your assistant could contact my chief of staff at [REDACTED]

I have instructed him to coordinate. Look forward to it,

Best,

Ehud Barak
