This is from a Tim Davis Survey of January 23, 2012. Do you want a copy of the survey?

In summary we would suggest the following:

- We would suggest an initial listing for the vessel in the amount of $140,000.00.
- For a buyer, with the intention of employing the vessel in the Caribbean, a negotiated selling price of $120,000.00, in our opinion would be reasonable.
- A settlement with an East Coast buyer in the amount of $105,000.00 to $110,000.00 would also be reasonable
- If it can be determined that the vessel was originally constructed as a US Coast Guard Certified vessel, we would suggest that the listing price be increased by $20,000.00 and the selling prices be increased by $10,000.00. If it can be determined that the vessel has the potential of achieving Certification, we would strongly recommend that it be marketed accordingly.
