#1. Thank you for your reply of Dec. 21. I did receive the check for $25,000. I am away and will be back Sunday night, Jan. 6th.

I am awaiting Bederson's accounting and assume it will be ready shortly after I return home.

#2. I assume they and you will discuss the 4.9 million dollar estate which includes the 250k loan on mother's death bed...minus expenses which also include the 90k you took as executor.

4.9 million dollars - 700 equals approximately 4.2

minus the 800 already paid...equals 3.4 million dollars

half of which is 1.7 million dollar additional, which I have received so far 450k.

So an additional check of 1,250,000 should be sent to me asap.

Afterwards we will need to resolve hopefully amicably the 500k difference of the million that you as trustee of dad's trust are legally responsible for letting mom take from us.

Dear Peggy,
Under separate cover, this week I have forwarded you a note indicating that Bederson & Co. are in the process of reviewing all the final numbers, which will be forwarded to you shortly.

In addition, I have enclosed a distribution check, please sign Receipt Of Beneficiary Form, and return to me.
Thank you,
Gary

Dear Gary:
Hope this email finds you well....and you enjoy the holidays.

#1. Please send me the accounting for the estate. This is past due.

#2. My calculations are that I am owed the following on the 4.9 million dollar estate;

which includes a loan to you of 250k that was made while mom was in the hospital in December before her death in February.

minus expenses which also include the 90k that you took as executor.

4.9 million dollars - 700 equals approximately 4.2

minus the 800 already paid...equals 3.4 million dollars

half of which is 1.7 million dollar additional, which I have received so far 450k.

So an additional check of 1,250,000 should be sent to me asap.

Afterwards we will need to resolve hopefully amicably the 500k difference of the million that you as trustee of dad's trust are legally responsible for letting mom take from us.
