

To: S. M. Kosslyn [REDACTED]
From: Jeffrey Epstein
Sent: Thur 1/3/2013 10:28:48 AM

If my mind were a retail shop, it would be displaying a sign that said " closed for taking inventory " . I am sorry we haven't spent more time together lately. There are few people i trust as much as you, and as you know am there if you need anything. As we used to spend many sundays reviewing the world , I wondered why that had ceased. I would really appreciate a direct ,blunt, answer. I recognized , when you were still at Harvard that my more colorful past had strained some of your relations with others however, . I am trying to make some course corrections as i approach the springtime of my senility, and look to you in hope of inputing some new cooridanates.

--

The information contained in this communication is confidential, may be attorney-client privileged, may constitute inside information, and is intended only for the use of the addressee. It is the property of Jeffrey Epstein

Unauthorized use, disclosure or copying of this communication or any part thereof is strictly prohibited and may be unlawful. If you have received this communication in error, please notify us immediately by return e-mail or by e-mail to jeevacation@gmail.com, and destroy this communication and all copies thereof, including all attachments. copyright -all rights reserved