I began a three hour drama by asking the question. what can i do to make you feel better. given that things between us are strained. a caring, concerned attempt to find a way to encourage our time together. what i heard in return was , why do you always want other girls involved.(I told you day one -that if you are concerned by other girls , make issues of it, mind it, willl complaining about it. our getting together is not a good idea). you go on to say . you scream at me, you tell me i don't do anything right. . i don;t have a full time boyfriend either, what will happen in three years. how will it work, I am very sorry that i upset you. very sorry, I wil try not to do it again, I love you very much.
