Hi Jefferey..

We've decided that the entire senior team here is going accompany Ben on a trip to NYC, to be there Thursday and Friday of this week. We are talking to potential investors that Ben has already talked to.

Ben has asked me to ask you whether you perchance are free (and interested!) to meet with us either Thursday morning or Friday afternoon? We would find your take on things useful, if you do have the time and inclination..

In any case, I hope you are well!

S.
