So the last weekend of the festival, there is only one other show that may be worth seeing besides "mine" and that's Dave Attell's Comedy Underground but it's at midnight (OY!) in a small crowded club. Don't think it's a good JE venue (or time!) will keep you updated if I hear about anything else. Where are you anyway??

So first shows last night went very well. The festival wouldn't show the three minute animated Super Hero porn video I made. Said it was a bit too "graphic" so that fucked up the five minute opening monologue I had about animated porn! But being the pro I am, I rebounded successfully and was suitably nasty and kept the show moving. Like I said there is NOTHING else but our show going On this week, but July 25-26 when we do our last weekend in the bigger venue, there may be something they add to the festival that you may want to see. But like I said before, as it stands now, there are some great comics like Bill Burr, who could be my favorite comic working today (not really too blue, but very cutting edge. Look him up on the internet if you have time) but he's just hosting a big theater show with 8-10 other comics doing five - ten minutes each. That "may" be worth seeing. Let me check out the line up of who he has on, but again, you're like me and can't sit in fucking theater seats for two hours watching this shit. I get it! Believe me, I get it! Get back to you later.
