It's weird how this festival works. It's become so big that it's expanded to three weeks. First week - this week - is devoted to my NASTY SHOW. Next week, when I'm not there is mostly the French portion which of course is a bunch of horseshit whether you speak their stupid language or not. The third week when we come back to do six shows on July 25/26 has a bunch of shows going on but not sure you could sit through any of them. One show features Don Rickles but he doesn't go on till the end and it's in a theater which, like me, you would hate. Lewis Black does a couple of theater shows and I love him, but you told me you weren't that impressed, so not sure you'd make it through that one! Although happy to hook you up with tix if not sold out. (even if it is can probably pull it off) Let me look at schedule again and see if anything really REALLY looks good! Let you know tomw!
