Thanks for remembering. I was supposed to be leaving for a vacation to Israel tonight. Had to change my plans. My son Warren was in Tel Aviv since early June ;we were going to meet him there. Instead he comes home tonight. I do think of Warren E. often; we had a great relationship and were always on the phone speaking about nothing/everything. My relationship with him was special a link between our past and present. I knew him longer than anyone else besides my sisters. His passing is very sad and a true personal loss for me. I do speak with Terry periodically and thats good. I guess I missed your brothers birthday; Ill give him a call. Otherwise all is good; still working too much and my children are growing up quickly. Hope all is well with you. Stay healthy; stay in touch. Again thanks for remembering my birthday.
