Hi dear Jeffrey:)
How are you?

Jeffrey, you know me, I would never ask if I could...
But I'm literally on the edge... I have no castings at all, no jobs at all... I have to change the agency, cause they don't do anything for me....so I spoke with Barry and I asked him two weeks ago to help me to set up appointments for some commercial agencies - he promised to do that... but until now he didn't do it...
I met Steve yesterday for a dinner, but he as usual... he doesn't do anything for me... he just talking...

And the things got so bad that I don't even have enough money to pay my rent for the next month... I had some money in the bank in Ukraine... but with this situation in my country they don't give those money back... so those money sort of gone :(((

I have no one to ask except you... can you pleeeassseee borrow me 2 000 dollars to pay my rent??? I'll give you those money back as soon as I'll get some work...

Please let me know,

Sending my love,
