Hi Ana,

I am a little concerned why so little action was taken at the main compound yesterday after the meeting and walk through with JE. We split up the island, so I expect you to be on top of those main compound issues as soon as they are pointed out please.

The bird poop should have been washed when he went to the office, and someone should have gotten the suntan oil, purchased new flowers and been faster in getting the problems rectified.

Let's get the following done today in addition to already forwarded list:

Power washing of walls and stones at master bath

Repair of outdoor bath fixtures

New flowers on white table and in master bathroom. Something nice please :), not a dead Home Depot flowers

Repair of bedside reading lamp in master bedroom

Please instruct Dulce in making sure bedside lamp shades are straight after she cleans in there. This goes for all lamp shades in cabanas as well

Replenish all pen/pencils in holders in Main Compound

Get two statues from chillax room taken to the office

Please ask JE where he wants artwork hung in cabana 1

Frames with bugs/butterflies in chillax room to be hung at flag pool.

Please have Pokie take a look at master bedroom floor and make suggestion to a fix for the problem

Let's make sure that pressing items like the above are handled on the spot. Most of it is small easy tasks that could have been delegated yesterday.

Thank you

John
