Jeffrey

can I ask You something? Please, do not understand me wrong,I very appreciate my place where I'm living at the moment and I was just wondering if any chance I can move to another apartment [REDACTED] which I love for a while and which is a bit bigger compared to my current, on the sunny side of the building and has balcony as well. What is also important for me - that "[REDACTED] is Your and my letter...)))

I do not want to seem like ungrateful pig, please understand me right.

Thank You
