You can use this server and update easily here - I was just offering to use my team to update the site for you and gracefully integrate the content for the first pass. Once it is all loaded up you will be able to access a wordpress panel to manage pretty much all aspects of the site

JE - Just so you know we are working on <http://www.jeffreyepstein.net>

Hi Tyler,

I'll send you the NET site content tomorrow. About 14 pages of text-- with link and subpage directions. Might be easier to transfer to a server that I can use and update from time to time.

thanks,
