Bill , On a strictly personal note. On Tuesday I thoroughly enjoyed our one on one , non -crisis , time. It is clear to me that you miss, friendship, whether it be Boris or more a more generalized version. . Friendship that is all encompassing, i.e. Nathan being a great friend but compartmentalized. I always want you to feel free to call or contact me just to bullshit. (a necessary part of friendship as opposed to biz). I am well versed in the burdens of wealth, and as you know care little about its accumulation. I am still intrigued by how it can be used, thoughtful practical ideas, in solving problems that few in the past have had the privilege to attempt.
