This morning, you may have attempted a bath. Perhaps you turned the faucet, only to notice the rusty drain. Or maybe the soothing scent of lavender bath salts wasn't enough to block out the mountain of clutter that's overtaken your counter. Fortunately, you can clean things up without knocking down walls or dumping all of your toiletries into the hall closet.

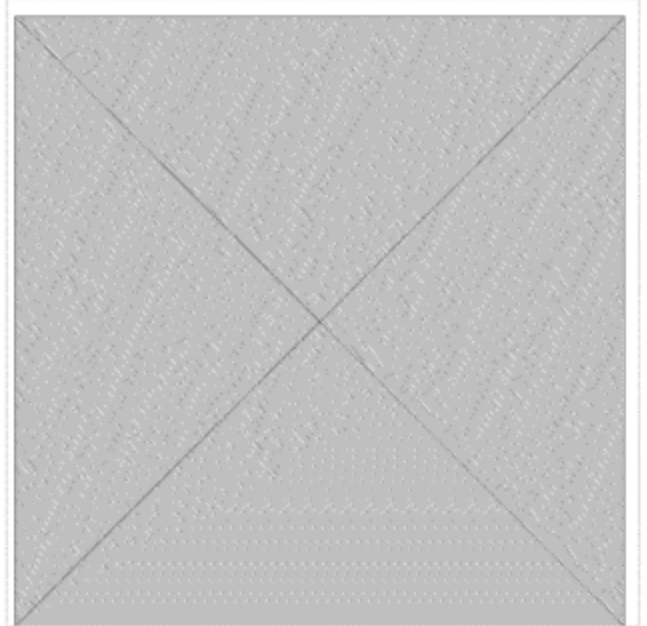

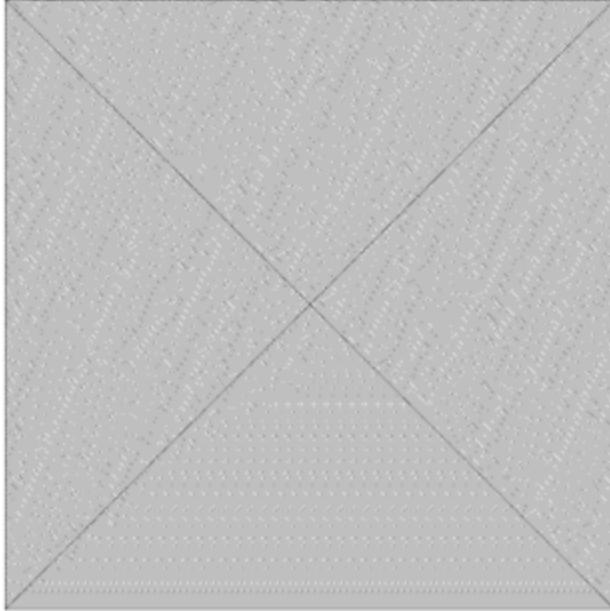

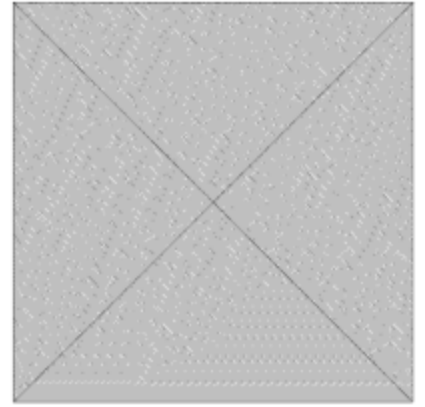

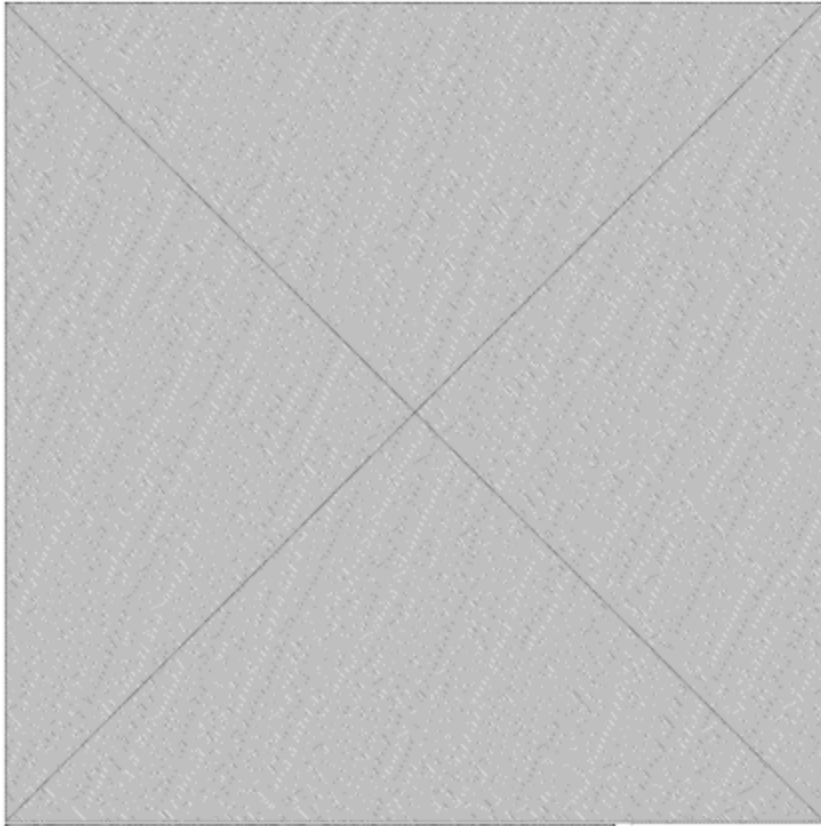

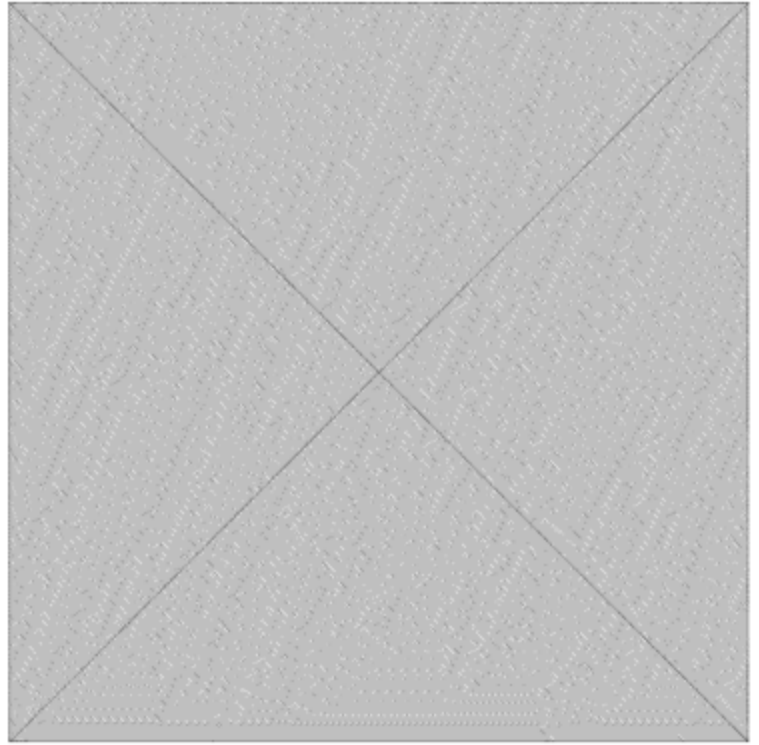

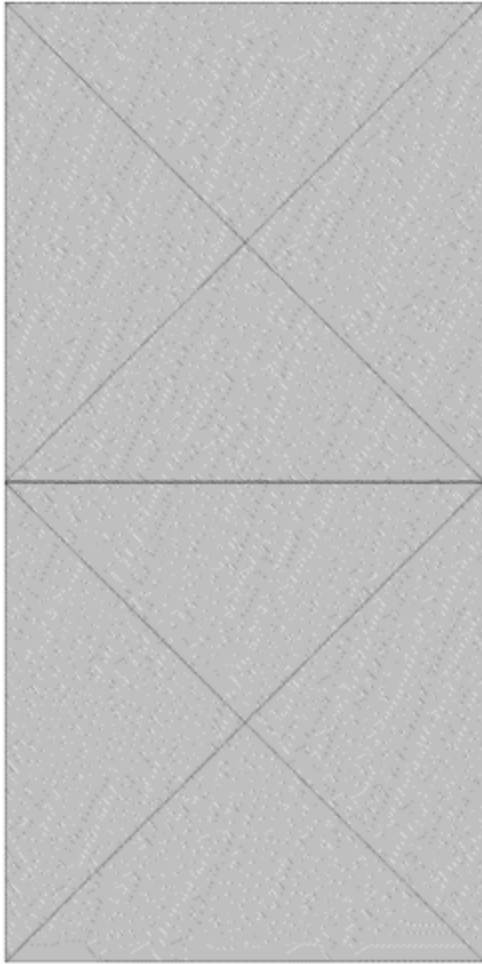

Spruce up your space with sleek, modern wood accents that lighten the look while weaving in a fresh, organic modern style. Keep your hair products and face lotions organized with minimalist storage pieces. And if you really want to do it up right, invest in a stunning new soaking tub, and prepare to wash away the last of your stress in a restorative hot bath.
