No!! Why do you ask?

Quite the opposite...my role here is fine and very full. It's just not fun and feels unproductive. It's hard for me to declare success when the outcome is a new process.

I'm in a director role and track all the performance against corporate priorities (operations, financials, knowledge).

Gross that we have a senior management mtg tomorrow for 4 hours and there is a 487 page slide deck.

Just not for me.

I don't think they will fire my boss before his term is up in 2017. He's done nothing egregious.
