yuri, I thought more about our call. To remind you, I relied on your word, Bill relied on your word and Larry Bills chief of staff, confirmed your commitment to move forward only two weeks ago. However the very same day that I received a draft of the ppm marked the 27th version. and after reading at least 10 previous versions, you asked your assistant to notify me that after 7 months of me moving forward that you at the last minute had changed your mind. This is not fair, and though I am very understanding of your other commitments. I find myself in a very difficult position as a result of taking you at your word, accepting your handshake and counting on you fulfilling your commitment. I have few alternatives but to continue to move in this space, and would hope that at least for the next two years I could use DST as a back office. (until I could replace them) accounting etc. 2. with your permission use the ppm excising your name and that of DST affiliates out of it. and would hope that you would be a special limited partner. being charged no fees whatsoever. I think this proposal is very fair. and would appreciate a personal response as soon as you are able. thanks in advance
