I spoke with Riva Pompano Beach dealer yesterday
They are most prominent quad ski dealer as they have sold approximately 75 units from inception which they said was 50% of overall quad ski sales for 2012 / 2013
The 2015 models will not be out until 2015 however in June they will begin receiving 2014 Quadski XL machines. This is the two seater version as you requested. They have 2 machines arriving around June 10th (blue and silver).
Colors available of XL are blue, silver, red and yellow. If you would like a custom color (any color you desire) this can be done for a 2,200 extra charge and will take approximately 3 weeks Machine MSRP is 48,900 and salesman said they cannot work on price at all in June. This may be a different story later in the year..
I also asked if you can test drive a machine and they said they have never done water demos for customers.
Basic mtc can be done by LSJE employees however any major mechanical issue will require flying in tech to review machine.
Please advise if you would like me to place order for red as discussed or if you would like a custom color
