Hi Linda. I trust you, Barney n Betty and the bird are doing OK. I'm sure it's a very difficult transition. I hope that your work and daily routine get you through it.

Are you all set for your trip to NY? Were you able to get the apt in Mark's bldg.? What time do you get in on Saturday? I will be picking up the cremains this Friday and will transport them to NY for the scattering ritual on Sunday at 2 pm at the Sea Gate Beach or Lagoon. Think about who you would like to have there. Please relay this to Benjy. I have nothing to do with the planning of the service at the shul, but I am sure it will be warm and appropriate. Safe travels to NY , Terry
