Subject: What about this...

These guys are nuts and detached but affiliated with the med school. Can operate a little differently (prizes, etc)

Would say create

"Vagus X Lab"

and it is super funny for reasons that only we will understand and that is that the vagus is the 10th cranial nerve and all of the anatomic annotations just call the vagus "X"

i'm dying to get out of here

FUND IT! Create it!!
