I am devastated by your lack of sensitivity. I am hurt to the core I don't even know what to say to you.

i needed you so much right now.

I was asking you as the person I considered closest to me (still) the person who has immeasurable power , for whom there could have been a million ways our lives could have engaged to at least produce something of value given the extraordinary connection we had (and this) . we seem to be in a dead end conversation and right now it isn't even a business consideration , it's a lively hood conversation.
