Jeffrey,

OMG: Caitlin should have sent her thank you out the next day.

I am embarrassed you did not get any communication from us. I apologize for my not getting right back to you personally as well.

We cannot thank you enough for your great generosity in supporting Caitlin's charity. She is very much engaged in it. Thanks largely to you, she has been the biggest fund-raiser for the NY annual Walk for CCFA the last couple years. It meant a huge amount to her that you not only gave, but gave so generously.

She is doing really well these days: with her Rx you would never know she had any health issues: she has not had a flare in >2 years. She is loving Amherst and thriving there, growing into a wonderful young woman. She made the Div I varsity squash team as a walk-on freshman this season!

She and Celina met for lunch recently: really nice they're still in touch.

I trust this note finds you really well.

Warm regards and thank you so much again,

Woody
