Translating Ryan McNamara
Presented by Neuehouse and Performa
Thursday, March 6th, 6:30 – 8 PM
The Gallery

Ryan McNamara, winner of Performa 13's Malcolm McLaren Award—given to “an artist who demonstrates the most innovative and thought-provoking performance during the biennial”—will talk about Meem: A Story Ballet About the Internet, his award-winning work that moved audiences on and off stage. A dancer will demonstrate McNamara's idea of translating dance styles taken from the internet into live performance. Also in conversation will be visionaries of the online and art worlds, David Shing, AOL's Digital Prophet and RoseLee Goldberg, Performa's Founding Director and Curator.
