Jeffrey

I spoke to supervisor Furlong in St Thomas, she was very helpful, Supervisor Furlong states, as long as the passenger has in her possession the paper work that indicates she is allowed to be in United States and paper work that shows she has applied for a green card, more documentation the better, Passenger would be allowed travel to USVI and return to USA soil.

Hope this helps,

I wanted to speak with Supervisor HEIL but he is not working until 3pm, I could confirm with him as well if you think is appropriate ?

Thx
Larry

please contact vi customs, tell them we have a passenger that is russian , in full status that has applied for a green card. we would like to confirm that a trip to the virgin islands would not be considered travel outside the country . and that she would have no problem if she visited the island return afterward to the mainland.
thanks
