Subject: Re: HAPPY BIRTHDAY!!!

The conversation was between the John and Kevin. The owner, Kjaer, had been trying to get us (John and I) to go to GSJ for dinner. We could not make it and when I asked John why Kjaer wanted to have dinner with us, he mentioned that Kjaer wanted the VIGOV to purchase GSJ with the caveat of allowing his son to use the house. I thought about your prior interest when John mentioned that the GOV would not entertain purchasing it because it does not have the money but would love to own it.

I will collect the information that you requested.

With warm regards,
Cecile

Thanks ,, I think we can respond to Kevin damour. 1. There would be a withholding tax on sale . 2. Why not merely donate it and claim charitable benefit. 3 can we find out taxes paid and owed..? 4 how many acres would they like set aside for sons use ! . ?
