Jeffrey. We are growing further apart rather than together it is just not in my comfort zone to pay the kind of fees you feel entitled to which I respect I know how hard I worked for what I have a d it may be the wrong decision but I have followed my instincts for my entire career a d that is what I shall continue to do I have never engaged a lawyer or advisor on the basis you feel appropriate and I respect your approach but it is just too uncomfortable for me much as I respect your unique talents

I wish we could have arrived at a different place and it is probably the wrong decision but there we are. Best Mort

Im sure you have now confirmed everything I have told you re your financials. (I being the only person to have repeatedly given you accurate info), so there be no misunderstandings going foward as these emails both tedious as uncomfortable for you as well as me. You would like me to create over 400 million dollars of value for you , that if someone else were capable of doing , they would have already. . what percentage of that value do you think fair to pay. 50% -40% 30% the rothko, that only cost you 5 million . if you prefer non- dollars. In june I told you 40 million before i knew the full situation. . that is also no longer an option. We like and respect each other too much to continue this dance. TO find out that your balance sheet is short by hundreds of millions of dollars is im sure disturbing.
