Draft: send this or too desperate...?

Dick,

We are about to bankrupt because of you.
I relied on your word and turned other investors away.

To clarify: I have NEVER taken a salary from the business (since it was started in 2006), nor did I want to take a salary now!
Even my CEO has a salary of zero.

The guy you rely on, Erez, has not even met me or anyone in the company. He knows nothing about our business.

You have a stellar reputation and you are man of integrity - how can you act this way??

I simply do not comprehend your actions, you had months to change your mind, but not in the last minute.

Jeffrey vouched for you, and now more than 60 people will be out of work after seven years of enormous work. This is my creation which is on track and will now most probably die because you lied.

David
