Thanks a lot. I couldn't agree more. I have found something small to get involved with at home in Switzerland for the next month or so, so I am keeping busy while I understand what I want to be doing more permanently. But it is a project that could become an interesting business for me to run should I decide to develop it further.

Needless to say, an opportunity with you would be very interesting, and I would love to be in touch in a bit with a more final answer.

of course. I would suggest however that thinking is not going to lead anywhere . doing ,leads places. occupies your mind, you might make a bad decision , but it is better than analyzing things that really can't be analyzed, not necessarily with us, but i would urge you to engage with something quickly , a project.- set small goals with reachable milestones. . if you need professional help I will make the investment.

Hi Jeffrey,

I would like to consider that. At present, I need a month on my own before I decide what I would like to do. I can be in touch in about that much time as soon as things are clearer.

Thank you for the offer.
