I believe that taking the job as deans assistant would be the smart thing for you to do. I m sorry that you consider having to live up to your obligations as tasteless and petty, You asked for help and received it. once again its time you stopped playing the victim . As you said people want to hire you because you are great. (your words) I agree, its time you prove it to yourself. and stop pointing to any failure as mine and successes as yours. Its silly and counter productive.

I heard nothing sensitive or productive on the phone and it appears your request for money was just as tasteless and petty as it looked. Why did you not answer my questions in an email? What are the new google alerts about...is your case opened again?
