you have to deal with tough realities. financial commitments obligations for rent, school , life.
. time commitments to work . and emotional commitments to you. I would love your help in finding a solution . Our friction hurts you , I and our relationship. trust between us is important. I hope that we no longer have to spend what little time we have together , rediscussing . LEts try to move forward. I apprecaite all you have done and want to spend quality time. without stress. I think you are wonderful
