Andrew Lasso told me that Mark Tollisons girlfriend phoned him complaining about the fact that the doorman sent her husband and husbands boss an email and now she has problems. Obviously it was my email. she tried to forward it to Andrew but instead sent a picture of the doorman she had taken the night before. I would think that instead of complaining she would be apologizing to you and the building. In all the years I have been here I have never had a complaint or issue from the building about any of our guests. she is the first one.
