Introducing Be The Light New York...

Dear friends,

I'm so excited to see many of you this week in New York for the U.N. Assembly and the C.G.I. conference. I wish all of you an inspiring and successful trip during this world shaping week.

If you are looking for a thoughtful gift with a meaningful message to bring back home, you may find it in the Apothecary shop at Bergdorf Goodman on the 7th floor. There you will discover "THE WORLD COLLECTION". Six luxury candles each with a special message from the brand that I just launched named "Be The Light New York", designed to bring light to your home and life.

As I have been inspired by the world, each candle is inspired by a different country, its treasure and the meaning of that treasure. It can help you say THANK YOU with the symbolism of American Bluebell Bliss. Bring PEACEFULNESS with Indonesia Patchouli Peace, or mark the CELEBRATION OF LIFE with the historical meaning of Mexican Cacao Mystique.

Thank you for working hard to keep the torch of light and hope for our world.

Big hug.

Lots of love, light and laughter
