I have not gone dark! When and where? I am taping a conversation on Nantucket next weekend on some other William Carlos Williams poems and we could send that taping to him: it would give him insight. But his thoughts about the aggression in the poem about plums was also just great and would be a good starting point for our discussion Justice Elena Kagan was worried about seeming stupid too and we had a great time! Greg LeMond this weekend
How about Friday October 4th. I'll be in NY showing Maya Cullen. I can have a video team come to Woody anywhere.
