Message from Gary below,
He has verbal offer on GII for 200k, Gary informs me he thinks he'll get buyer to 250k if you'll agree, "As is".
Gary will update later,
Do you agree to dump the GII for 250k if buyer agrees to this price? They want to close in Palm bch / South florida asap if we get contract in writing.

Is 250k acceptable ? Gary's comish is 40k

Larry,

Please advise Jeffrey that I feel very positive that I am going to be able to get one further bump from the $200,000 offer currently on the table.

They want assurances that (1) we can close in Florida, that (2) we will point them in the right direction for a replacement engine, and (3) we will get the on-line maintenance report up to date.

I have assured them that none of these three points are issues and that if they can give us "a little more money in the spirit of the deal" along with a written offer confirming a quick performance, that we will find a way to make this work.

I will keep you posted, as we do not want to lose this buyer!

Sincerely,

*Gary Anzalone - Managing Partner
